

LOGO EXPLANATION: COME TO THE LIVING WATER

THE ROCK

The words of John 7:37-38 were spoken by Jesus during the celebration of the Feast of Tabernacles. During this feast people were reminded of the blessings granted to their forefathers in the wilderness. One of these blessings was the gift of water that came as Moses hit the rock with his staff and water flowed forth for the people who were dying of thirst. Jesus used the rock in an allegorical sense to point out a deep spiritual truth that He is the rock of which spiritual water comes. 1 Corinthians 10:4 states: "...for they all drank from the spiritual rock that accompanied them, and that rock was Christ." It is also important to point out that during those times when we feel dry spiritually and distant from God, we are invited to come to the Lord who is our refuge. He is a constant during times that are uncertain.

WATER

The grace of the Spirit of God is signified by water, because of its cleansing and purifying nature, just as is the blood of Christ, which cleanses from all sin. The blood of Christ will cleanse us and the water of life-His Spirit-will live in us. It is living water because it brings refreshment to those who are parched by the heat of the burning law. It brings life to dead sinners and revival and comfort to weary saints. It springs up as rivers because of the abundance of grace that we receive from Christ. The result of having our spiritual thirst quenched is streams of living water will flow through us to bring life-giving water to others.

THE DOVE

The dove is a symbol of the presence of the Holy Spirit. It was the sign to John when Jesus was baptized as the Holy Spirit rested upon Him and remained in Him. The Holy Spirit is the source of the overflowing life. Revelation 22:17 says "The Spirit and the Bride say, 'Come!' And let him who hears say, 'Come!' Whoever is thirsty, let him come, and whoever wishes, let him take the free gift of the water of life." It is the Holy Spirit who extends the invitation to receive the transforming water of life.
